*Our wine list is small and, in its infancy but ever growing...
If it were a person, and describing itself for a Myspace bio it would say things like "I'm thoughtful and caring. I believe in honesty and integrity. I try not to take myself too seriously. My favourite bands of all time are The Smiths, Talking Heads and The Strokes. And I love Jeff Buckley.
But I'm currently listening to A Tribe Called Quest and Death Cab for Cutie. I like spending time in the sun as much as I do getting cozy. And I love food. Especially fresh seafood."*

“Sur Mer/on sea” - Wines made (intentionally or not) to go with oysters.

Notes;

{Don't get me wrong. There are many many other wines on the list that will pair wonderfully with an oyster - and - I have never been, nor do I ever want to be, telling you what's right and what's wrong when it comes to your own taste. I'm simply guiding your attention towards these in some cases fizzy but in all cases cold examples of what I believe to be a very special companion to a lovely, plump and briny oyster.}

Muscadet!!

The grape is Melon de Bourgogne. The location is the west Loire Valley.

The climate is cooler than much of the rest of the Loire as it is dominated by the influence of the mighty Atlantic Ocean. The terroir, for those who believe, is prime for pristine white wine production.

Combine these effects with some clever, traditional, (dare I say it) Burgundy-ish white wine making techniques and you find yourself opening bottle after bottle of this gloriously approachable wine.

And just in case that isn't enticing enough for you. It pares marvellously with the salty bivalves that we endear so much here at The Walus.
